

Vandniya Mataji a true Mother

Vandniya Mata Bhagvati Devi Sharma is the true Mother for every body. But who can be the Mother? Mataji has a very clear concept about this. In one of her discourses she said, “One who gives physical birth is called Janani, but one who gives samskaras to the child relentlessly makes effort to mould the life of the child is mother. Ma is always involved to push their children upwards, forwards and make arrangement for their inner development.

Mataji used to say “My child, I am not Janani of all of you, but I am certainly a true mother who will give good sanskars to you”.

She was always working according to the above statement in every dimension, this truth was repeatedly expressed. The food she used to serve, which used to contain the greatest power and density. Poojya Gurudev was telling this to devotees in clearly that, you people, do not think that Mataji is an ordinary woman; she was a personified, Santi & Shakti Swarooma. She is Mahasakti, she is hiding her spiritual riches (Aadhyatmika Aiswarya) and is living like a normal women. To recognize her, understand her correctly is not easy. The truth is that even by coming into contact with her the passionate impurities the afflicted embellishments are destroyed. In her personality the seeds of divine purification are sown.

Poojya Gurudev used to say,” Never think & make that mistake that, the food of Matajii is simple. It is filled with extra ordinary spiritual energy. She transformed divine energy into the food. Thousands and millions might have taken food from the kitchen of Mataji. Many must have experienced it. Sometimes this experience was so impact, that they could not control the revealing.

Who so ever ate Vandniya Mataji’s food their entire life style got change. Their thinking pattern different than before. Their life becomes a real Bhramin, Simple living & High thinking.

The emotional mother Bhagvati descended as an answer to the prayers and penance of the sadhaks. It is for the purpose alone that the pure consciousness of the Matrutva (mother principle) crystallized and descended in physical form. The divine light Matrutva (mother principle) takes birth in order to fulfill the spiritual desire of the sadhaks which are continuing from many lives. The light of this great soul not only illuminates the various worlds but it also illuminates the inner minds of the people. By the descent of this Yug Shakti, the worldly atmosphere is filled with a special smell. Awakened souls experience wonderful and great vibrations in their inner hearts. The Rishis, Devathas and Saints get prepared for the great event----- the descent of the divine light Adishakti. A unique consciousness is spreading in everything divine. During these magic moments of the descent of Adi Shakti, similar experiences were uttered.
